RAW PORTORO is a set of 3 sculptural objects made from a creative intervention in an exclusive selection of marble stones. In a symbiosis between functionality and pure aesthetics, RAW can work as a bookend, a sculpture or a decorative object, bringing elegance and intention to spaces.

Due to the unique characteristics of marble stone, and because all the pieces are carved by hand, this product may show slight variations. Marble stone is a natural raw material and its textures and design make it unrepeatable.
